FSGW Co-sponsored Special Event

Glen Echo Park, MD

The 28th Annual Washington Folk Festival

A Showcase of Music, Dance, Stories, and Crafts

from America and Around the World

The Folklore Society of Greater Washington presents the 28th edition of the Washington Folk Festival, to be held Saturday May 31st and Sunday June 1 at Glen Echo Park. Artists from the Washington area will present music, dance, and storytelling on seven stages scattered through Glen Echo Park – “home grown” blues, bluegrass, Cajun, and Gospel will share space with more exotic musical fare from Africa, Eastern and Western Europe, Japan, Russia, South America, Turkey, and more. The free festival runs from noon to 7 pm each day, rain or shine – all performance areas are indoors or under cover.

Young and old will delight in the charming setting (Glen Echo Park was founded in 1891 as a National Chautauqua Assembly). The beautifully restored animals on the 1921 Denzel Carousel will enthrall children, and there will be musical performances at Cuddle Up, Crystal Pool, Puppet Theater, and other stages. There will be dancing in the handsome Spanish Ballroom, stories in the Arcade, and crafts to buy in the Bumper Car Pavilion. The Yurt Village stage features family-oriented performances, and a cabaret of local singer-songwriters will perform in the late afternoon.

See the grid on pages 25-26 for details.

The festival is sponsored by the Folklore Society of Greater Washington, in cooperation with the Glen Echo Park Partnership for Arts and Culture, the National Park Service, Montgomery County, MD, the Arts and Humanities Council of Montgomery County, the Richmond Folk Festival, and WAMU88.5-FM.

Glen Echo Park is located at 7300 MacArthur Blvd., Glen Echo, MD. We strongly recommend using the off-site parking and shuttle service, located at the GEICO parking lot, 5260 Western Ave, Chevy Chase, MD, one block from the Friendship Heights Metro station.

Hokum's Heroes

Kernel Clink

Tuesday, June 10 • 8 pm

The Boston-based 6-piece band Hokum's Heroes honor the immortal string band music of Howard 'Louie Bluié' Armstrong and jug band music of Jim Kweskin. Hokum's Heroes perform early 20th Century Pop music, twining together early jazz, vaudeville, hokum, string band, jug band, gospel, and blues. The considerable individual skills of these fine musicians, along with their passion for the music, give you a glimpse of the infectious spontaneity that is integral to the style, but their modern sensibilities give it verve and wit - live acoustic music as it is meant to be heard.

Bruce Millard, the bandleader (guitar and mandolin), who appeared in the PBS documentary Sweet Old Song with the late Mr. Armstrong, has assembled musicians who share his passion and dedication to the music. Samoa Wilson on vocals (first recording at age 12 with Jim Kweskin), Geordie Gude (harmonica), Matthew Berlin (bass), Jerome Deupree (percussion) and Matt Leavenworth (fiddle).

Reserve a seat at the Reitz Ranch (in Derwood, between Rockville and Olney) by contacting Marv or Kathy Reitz at 301.670.6716 or reitz@verizon.net. They'll give you driving directions. Doors open 7:30, show 8-10. Suggested donation $15.

Metro: A 10-minute cab ride from Shady Grove or Rockville on the Red Line. The Ride-on Bus #53 from Shady Grove will also take you there on a weeknight, and someone will certainly give you a ride back to the Metro.

JON BARTLETT

NORTH BY NORTHWEST

MONDAY, JUNE 16 • 8 PM

Jon Bartlett, a student and singer of British Columbian and Pacific Northwest folk music, has got a great voice, as you'd expect from a former choirboy. His non-church singing memories begin with the Aldermaston to London anti-bomb marches of the early sixties, which drew him to British folk clubs, his local being the Stanford in Brighton, where the first song he ever led was "Solidarity Forever!" When he emigrated to Canada in 1968, he quickly became a member of the Vancouver Folk Song Society (VFSS).

It was through the VFSS that he met his wife Rika Ruebsaat. They sang at folk festivals and folk clubs across Canada and the US, and published Canada Folk Bulletin, a bi-monthly national magazine about folk music. Frustrated by the beginner-level educational workshops necessitated by limited school budgets, Jon and Rika trained as teachers so they could pursue the incorporation of Canadian folk songs into the curriculum. Rika became a Music specialist and then a classroom teacher in Surrey, BC and Jon became a classroom teacher in Vancouver and later a researcher on First Nations issues.

Brian Peters

Main Squeeze

Wednesday, July 30 • 8 pm

Brian Peters is a performer of traditional folk music who combines a high level of skill on three different instruments with a great voice and an energetic stage presence. He's a leading English squeezebox player, doubling on melodeon (button accordion) and anglo concertina, a fine guitarist well-versed in open tunings, and a passionate singer who can convey drama or emotion, while his carefully-constructed accompaniments blend adventure and sophistication. Described as "One of British folk music's finest ambassadors," Brian started out in the folk clubs of England and has taken his performances to stages all over the world, touring regularly in Europe and America, and always retaining a deep commitment to the musical traditions of his native country.

Brian believes strongly in the power and relevance of the old songs and bases his set around them, but he's no diehard, and covers the work of writers from Leon Rosselson to Lyle Lovett and Robin Williamson, as well as contributing songs of his own. He specializes in the great ballads of the British Isles, but on the instrumental side, he has been a mover in the creation of a distinct identity for Northern English dance music, researching, playing and teaching rare tunes from centuries-old manuscripts, as well as composing many tunes in traditional style. He's also become known for daring forays into ragtime, blues and rock'n'roll on his squeezeboxes, and his stage set achieves startling variety, without ever betraying his traditional roots. Brian presents his material with warmth and unforced humour to appeal to the casual listener as well as the committed folk fan.

Contact the Cooks (301.776.4314 or cooks@ceimd.com) in advance to reserve a seat in the "tree-house" music room for the evening. They can also give you precise driving or travel directions. Suggested donation $15.

Jon and Rika moved to Princeton, British Columbia, in June 2007, where they founded the Princeton Traditional Music Society, modelled on the VFSS. The Princeton group organizes the Princeton Traditional Music Festival, held each August. Jon and Rika continue their research into vernacular song in southern British Columbia, and are also working on a new history of Princeton, which they hope to publish for the 150th Anniversary of the town's founding.

For reservations or directions, contact Andy or Sondra Wallace by phone (301.324.7311) or e-mail (andy.sondra@verizon.net) to make sure they reserve space for you in the front hall of historic Mount Lubentia for an evening with Jon Bartlett. Suggested donation $15.

Metro: It's a half-hour walk from Largo Town Center on the Blue Line, or you can use the Metrobuses C22 (weekdays) or C29 (weekends) <<http://wmata.com/timetables/md/c2129.pdf>> toward •Pointer Ridge• to the corner of Kettering Drive and Largo Road. (Or take a short taxi ride.) You'll probably want to ask someone to give you a ride back to Metro (or home) following the concert.

Calling by the Too Hot Mamas with Big Hair – Janine Smith and Susan Taylor will show you how to mix it up and break it on down, 1940s style.

13 Lucky thirteen brings us Peggy Hesley, visiting from Arizona, with The Contraptions featuring Chloe Maher on piano, Bill Quem on mandolin, banjo, fiddle, harmonica, and concertina, and Nora Smith on fiddle, visiting from Philadelphia. East meets West for some red hot dancing!

20 A breath of cool air from the Northwest comes blowing in – Excellent caller Elinor Preston accompanied by Out of the Wood, with Kathy Bowman on fiddle, Vickie Marron on piano, and Pat Marron on guitar, mandolin, and percussion.

In Memoriam: Dick Rodgers

FSGW stalwart and folk music enthusiast Dick Rodgers died at age 70 of a heart attack on Tuesday, May 6. Dick may be considered FSGW member “number one,” joining the Society as soon as it was founded. Though he was not one of the crew that met in Chuck Perdue’s kitchen to found the Society in 1964, Dick has been there ever since. Famed for his enthusiasm and friendliness, as well as his often slightly off-key performances and his penchant for seeking the oddest, most obscure ballad or broadside, Dick has been a regular at every Open Sing, WFF, mini-festival, “pick-nik” (yes, we used to have those) and program for the entire 44 years of the Society’s existence.

Born and raised in Youngstown, Ohio, Dick finished his college and military service and came to Washington in the early ‘60s. He was a regular at various coffee houses, including ones he ran, and a member of the Washington Folk Music Guild, a precursor to the Society. He published for a time a small folksong newsletter, Washington Folk Strums, with news, performer interviews, recording reviews, and a full-page ad on the back for Dale Music (in payment for which he got the Martin classical guitar he always played). Dick’s other regular instruments were the fiddle and a homemade hurdy-gurdy, which he could regularly be seen playing in the picnic area at Washington Folk Festivals and at the Getaway.

Dick was a founding member of the Cathedral Avenue Cacophony, with Peter Sailer, Laura Sailer, Janice Cole and Joann McLaughlin. In more recent times, Dick limited himself to Pub Sings, Open Sings and FSGW festivals, though he presented a nice workshop on Washington in the ‘60s at this year’s Minifestival, in which I joined him to present a few of the songs we were singing “back in the day.” That was Dick’s last FSGW performance, and his presentation was well-received.

Sometimes annoying (at a long-ago FSGW Getaway, his performance of a long, turgid and obscure broadsheet ballad was enough to cause Nan Goland to light his word-sheet afire) and sometimes inspiring (Dick knew lots of songs, and even if he didn’t perform them so well, he could make you think “What a great song! I’ve got to learn that!”), Dick Rodgers will be remembered.

FSGW Membership Meeting - Bylaws Revision

The Bylaws Revision Committee has prepared a new (3rd) draft of proposed revised bylaws, which draft is being reviewed by an attorney with DC nonprofit law expertise. Once this review is complete and any necessary changes have been incorporated into the draft, a membership meeting will be held to allow final comments on the third draft. After any final changes, the draft will be submitted to FSGW members for a vote.

The membership meeting will be at Glen Echo Park in Classroom 201 on Monday, June 9, from 8pm to 10pm. Please check the Members' Page of the FSGW website to confirm the date, place and time. If the date or location must be changed, the update will be posted there.

The proposed bylaws (draft 3) will be posted to the Members' Page of fsgw.org in early June. We ask all interested members to visit this location to obtain a copy of the draft prior to the meeting.

Feedback on this third draft may be submitted to the Committee either of two ways: (1) attending the membership meeting; or (2) emailing comments directly to the committee at: secretary [at] fsgw.org. (The deadline for email comments will also be posted to the Members' Page.)

In response to feedback received on previous draft proposals, the Committee has significantly reduced the scope of proposed changes. Most significantly, the proposal to separate operational chair positions from the Board of Directors has been eliminated. Key changes from the current bylaws are:

- Board term limits are changed to 5 consecutive years. No limits are placed on consecutive terms in a particular position. After 1 year off the Board, an individual may serve again.
- Responsibilities of the Program Chair and the Special Events Chair are combined in a single position, called Program Chair. This parallels the responsibilities of the Dance Chair.
- Number of At Large members is increased from two to three.
- Voting for Board members may be conducted electronically by those members who authorize this method.
- The Board may make decisions between meetings if all Board members agree to the decisions.
- All activities must be carried out by an Officer or a committee; and all committees must include at least one Board member, who reports regularly to the Board.
- The bylaws amendment procedure is clarified and tightened, and voting on bylaws revisions may occur electronically for those members who authorize it.
- Ballots for Board election need not be mailed if there are no contested races.
- The quorum for a membership meeting for purposes of nominating candidates for the Board is set at 25 (lower than the normal quorum), to better enable nominations to take place.
- An individual whose membership was revoked may re-apply for membership after one year.

If the proposed bylaws revision is adopted, the then-currently elected Special Events and Program Chairs will serve their intended terms before the two chairs are merged, and the new term limits will not take effect until the next election.

Sincerely,

The Bylaws Revision Committee (Jane Ziki, Jim Cole, Colleen Reed, Victor Thuronyi, Leslie Barkley)

Volunteers Needed for Evening Hospitality Smithsonian Folklife Festival - June 25-July 6

FSGW volunteers have provided evening hospitality for the Smithsonian Folklife Festival participants and staff for more than 25 years. We set up the hospitality suite (which is at a nearby hotel, NOT on the Mall) about 8:30 pm, welcome participants, maintain the supply of food and drinks, and clean up the room at the end of the evening (most nights by midnight, party nights a little later). This year's three featured programs are "Bhutan, Land of the Thunder Dragon," "NASA, 50 Years & Beyond," and "Texas: a Celebration of Music, Food & Wine."

We staff the room every evening from the night before the Festival opens (June 25) through closing night (July 6). For more information, to donate food/drink (please), or to volunteer: Mary Cliff at mcliff@wamu.org or 703.534.7581. Come early, come late - it's very casual (and Metro accessible). Please volunteer, you'll meet fascinating people, and hear the best music jams!

Volunteer for the Smithsonian Folklife Festival - June 25-July 6

Volunteers are needed before, during, and after the 42nd annual Smithsonian Folklife Festival, to be held on the National Mall from Wednesday, June 25 through Sunday, June 29 and from Wednesday, July 2 through Sunday, July 6.

In addition to working with the featured programs (Bhutan, NASA, and Texas), volunteers are needed at the Festival's retail venue (the Marketplace) and at information kiosks. Especially needed are certified American Sign Language interpreters and volunteers who speak Dzongkha.

Applications online at www.folklife.si.edu/opportunities/volunteer.html or contact volunteer coordinator Amy Garrett at garrettamy@si.edu or 202.633.6484.

Highlights of FSGW Board Meeting, May 6, 2008

- The Bylaws Revision Committee announced they have significantly scaled back the changes proposed, and listed the key changes now being considered (see the Membership Meeting notice in this issue for more information). The new draft is being reviewed by an attorney specializing in non-profit law and regulations.
- The Board and Dwain Winters discussed display of the FSGW logo at the Washington Folk Festival. Board members pressed for display of the logo in all publicity. Dwain indicated concerns with Park regulations and acknowledging other supporters, but agreed to pursue making the FSGW logo more visible, perhaps by using the logo without text.
- Two tickets to the Glen Echo Partnership for Arts and Culture (GEPPAC) 2008 Gala in the Park will be used by Board members who have expressed an interest in attending. Dwain will offer the other tickets to WFF supporters.
- The Jonathan Eberhart fund yields approximately $1860 per year in interest, which amount would be available annually for programming without touching principal.
- A few individuals report consistently receiving their newsletters late - this probably needs to be brought to the attention of that individual's post office, as most newsletters seem to arrive on time.
- The Board resolved to allow the Roland keyboard to be borrowed by an FSGW member, with an appropriate donation.
- Approximately $14,000 in deposits were made on 1-23-2008 which are uncategorized income at present because the bookkeeper does not know who deposited the funds. The Treasurer (Leslie Barkley) will request appropriate information from the bank. Until this is resolved, the treasurer's report is incomplete.
- Membership. As expected, membership is down about 100 this month - last year the Seeger family concert provided significant incentive for new memberships, and many of those members did not renew.

A note of thanks:

Thank you for allowing me to serve on the FSGW Board again as Special Events Chair for the last two years – and thank you for attending the events! There are too many people to name everyone who helped with the planning and logistics, but I'd especially like to thank FSGW President Charlie Baum and Past-President Jim Cole – I truly would not have been able to manage without them.

The May 9 Sean-Nós Irish dance event was a marvelous show, with wonderful musicians and dancers. My special thanks to FSGW Board Member-at-large Laura Parsons for her invaluable help (including footing the bill for refreshments at the break). Mike Kearney, owner of the Old Brogue Pub (just down the street from the dance location) surprised us by bringing dinner for the musicians, dancers, and FSGW volunteers. Thank you, Mike!

Starting July first I will be Program Chair, but I will still be involved at least peripherally with Special Events – including Nowell Sing We Clear, December 20 at the Church of the Ascension in Silver Spring (mark your calendars!).

Remember, FSGW is an all-volunteer organization. If you can contribute time or money to Special Events and Monthly Programs (a donation to cover cookies and punch at the break, for instance), please let me know. Your time and money will be well spent.

Special Events Chair
