Session and Workshop descriptions:

Flourishes: Join us for a session in which we explore some flourishes! We might cover flourishes for: swings, courtesy turns, California twirls, petronellas, box circulates, and role swaps. Please come prepared to try both sides of the flourishes.

How to Dip and be Dipped: Add new skills to your repertoire! Learn to dip (Lead) and be dipped (Follow), or perfect your dipping technique in this workshop that will cover several dipping styles, safety, and partner communication. Open to everyone!

Can We Do This and That: This session will alternate between Very Challenging Contras and No Walk Thru Contras.

New Contra Dances: Contra dances written in the last year.

Glide and Flow: Fluid morning contras.

Discussion: What Does Consent Mean to You?: Join your fellow dancers for a moderated/facilitated lunch-time discussion on what consent looks like to you. Come ready to share your own experiences, how you handled them, and what you'd like to see for the future, or just come and listen.

Challenges You Didn't Know Were Challenging: Contra games- a session that challenges dancers in ways that build skills- set awareness, recovery ability, dance communication.

Waltz Workshop: Review the basics and add a new move or two to your repertoire. Level of the workshop set by attendees.

Open Sing: Bring a tune or just join in making a joyful noise! Lucia Schaefer will have their guitar and suggested songs with sheet music for those who want it.

What is a Folk Song?: In this workshop, you will explore the definition of a folk song as it pertains to modern compositions, learn tips and tricks for learning tunes quickly and singing harmony
